PREFACE

This volume of the electoral history of Ontario has been compiled for convenience of consultation. For accurate reference, the appropriate legislation or other statutory instruments should be considered.

Much of the information included in this work has been directly reproduced from original publications. These were in some cases not of high quality and this should be taken into consideration by persons using this book.

It should be mentioned that discrepancies were found in the resource material and notes have been made to this effect.

For the purposes of this edition, the division between Northern and Southern Ontario is defined by a line comprised of the French River, Lake Nipissing and the Mattawa River.

It is hoped that anyone wishing to comment on any errors or omissions would not hesitate to contact the Office of the Chief Election Officer.
